"One by one, condominium and timeshare developments sprouted up along the waterfront, threatening to ruin the view of the city from the water and blocking the access of passersby to the shore... Mary Ferrazzoli... fought tirelessly over the last decade to preserve public access to the waterfront in the face of increasing development."

Providence Journal (8/6/94)

MARY FERRAZZOLI
(1928-1994)

CHAMPION OF PUBLIC ACCESS TO THE WATERFRONT
FOUNDER OF FRIENDS OF THE WATERFRONT

"There was only one Mary Ferrazzoli, but she left a legacy of men and women who share her vision of the waterfront as the property of all the people and an organization that will strive to make that vision a reality."

Newport Daily News (8/3/94)
